COLLECT

Lord God, defend your Church from all false teaching and give to your people knowledge of your truth,
that we may enjoy eternal life
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Keep, O Lord, your Church, with your perpetual mercy; and, because without you our human frailty cannot but fall, keep us ever by your help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

FOR OUR PRAYERS: Tony, Daniel & family, Michael, Elizabeth, Maria, Maureen, Samantha

IN REMEMBRANCE: Danny Reardon, Ivor Vennard, Ken Davis, Ivy Turpin

DUNCAN PATTERSON-BANKS

A funeral service will be held for Duncan at 09.30 on Thursday 2 October at Hither Green Crematorium. Anyone who would like to attend this short service is very welcome to join Richard who will be presiding.

HARVEST 2025

There will be a Bring & Share lunch to celebrate Harvest after the service on 5 October. Please add to the list what you are able to contribute to the meal.

WORKS

We have refreshed and updated the Labyrinth garden and will be replacing all the lights in church with LEDs in the coming weeks. Both of these projects have been made possible by the legacy left by Margaret Exley. Once again, we thank her.

CHUTNEY

We are looking for St George's jars for our chutney makers—if you have any, please bring them in to Janet or Julie. And if you're a maker and need jars, please ask Janet or Julie who will be able to give you some.

FILM NIGHT

Our next meeting to discuss a film will be Thursday 23 October at 19:30 when we'll talk about Life of Brian. Our future meeting will discuss: 27 November First Cow

WAR MEMORIALS

There are three War Memorials at St George's. One (WWI) brought from St Paul's, one from St George's with many names of WWI deaths, and one of St George's casualties from WW2. They've now been photographed and transcribed, so please let me know if you might have a relative you'd like to trace or you're interested in the history of this area.

NT: I Timothy 6:6 - 19

⁶Of course, there is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; ⁷for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; ⁸but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. ⁹But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

¹¹But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. ¹²Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. ¹³In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you ¹⁴to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵which he will bring about at the right time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. ¹⁶It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honour and eternal dominion. Amen.

¹⁷As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. ¹⁸They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, ¹⁹thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

GOSPEL: Luke 16: 19 - end

¹⁹There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. ²⁰And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, ²¹who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. ²²The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. ²⁴He called out, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames." ²⁵But Abraham said, "Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. ²⁶Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us." ²⁷He said, "Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house— ²⁸or I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment." ²⁹Abraham replied, "They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them." ³⁰He said, "No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent." ³¹He said to him, "If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead."
