COLLECT

God, our refuge and strength, bring near the day when wars shall cease and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know the peace of heaven through Jesus Christ our Lord.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

FOR OUR PRAYERS: Tony, Samantha, Maria, Sheila, baby Sophia, Michael

RIP: Ruby Robinson

IN REMEMBRANCE: Lavinia Williams,

CHRISTMAS MARKET 29 NOVEMBER

It's that time of year again! We need your help to make our Christmas Market a success.

What we need from you now and over the next few weeks:

- Bottles for the bottle tombola
- Unwanted gifts/ items
- Toys in good condition but NOT SOFT TOYS
- Christmas items – odd crackers, wrapping paper, used but good condition gift bags & bottle bags, decorations etc
- Empty wine bottle – not brown glass
- Small card boxes for jewellery
- Home-made chutney and jam. See Julie & Janet for jars.

We also need offers of cakes for the cake stall.

Please consider offering your help on the Friday evening setting up, during the Market itself or clearing up. Just 20 minutes of your time helps enormously – 30 minutes even better!

See Dot or Jill B for questions, offers of help etc.

CHUTNEY JARS WANTED

We are looking for St George's jars for our chutney makers—if you have any, please bring them in to Janet or Julie.

WAR MEMORIALS - AMENDED!

There are three War Memorials at St George's. One, WWI, was brought from St Paul's, and one from the old St George's with the many names of those who died from the parish in WWI. The third, giving names, rank and branch of service, is a WW2 memorial from Christ Church. (The WWI Christ Church memorial is located in the garden there.) There is a currently a project initiated by the Imperial War Museum to gather all names from parish churches' memorials, so this information has been sent to them and to Lewisham Library. The memorials have now been photographed and transcribed, so please let me know if you might have a relative you'd like to trace or you're interested in the history of this area.

NT: Revelation 21.1–7

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, ‘See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
⁴ he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.’

⁵ And the one who was seated on the throne said, ‘See, I am making all things new.’ Also he said, ‘Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.’ ⁶ Then he said to me, ‘It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life. ⁷ Those who conquer will inherit these things, and I will be their God and they will be my children.

GOSPEL: Matthew 5: 43-48

⁴³ ‘You have heard that it was said, “You shall love your neighbour and hate your enemy.” ⁴⁴ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵ so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. ⁴⁶ For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax-collectors do the same? ⁴⁷ And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? ⁴⁸ Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.
